

E.C. Vitória - Brasileirão Série B 2023 - Performance Overview

Throughout the 2023 season, Vitória showed consistent and strong performance, securing the championship thanks to a combination of offensive efficiency, defensive solidity, and home advantage. The team displayed stable form across 38 matchweeks, with the longest poor stretch being one win and four losses in a span of five games. Early season momentum, including five consecutive wins in the first five rounds, contributed significantly to their success. Home matches were particularly dominant: Vitória won 73.7% of games, drew 15.8%, and lost only 10.5%, earning points in nearly 90% of home fixtures. The attack scored an average of 1.5 goals per game, while the defense allowed only 0.37 goals per match and kept 14 clean sheets in 19 home games. Away from home, the team remained competitive, winning 42.1% of matches, drawing 15.8%, and losing 42.1%, with six clean sheets and consistent goal scoring. The single 6-0 defeat away was an exception in an otherwise balanced away performance. Overall, Vitória's title-winning campaign reflects strong home dominance, a resilient away record, consistent goal-scoring ability, and a solid defensive structure. These factors combined ensured a successful and well-rounded season, highlighting the team's tactical consistency and competitive edge.
